Having duly considered the United States Motion for a Protective Order pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(d)(1), the Court finds “good cause” to order the following restrictions on discovery:

- (1) The portions of the police reports contained in Bates stamped pages 36-43 are to be redacted and any outstanding copies be destroyed. The United States is to provide fresh copies of the discovery with the redactions made as soon as possible.
- (2) The members of the defense team are ordered not to share or show any of the discovery, whether digital, paper or otherwise, with any other person, except upon showing of good cause in a further application to the Court. The defendants, whether in custody or not, may not share such documents or digital evidence with others who are not members of their defense team.

(3) Any court filing disclosing the materials mentioned above shall be filed under seal.

Any party objecting to the order may request a hearing under seal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
